PARENT MEMBERS: Becky Smith, Rachael Farley, Eva Chance, April Sintz, Heather Miller,

1. Introductions
2. Elect Chair/co-chairs, secretary
3. SCC Orientation - see handout – the principal and chair/co-chairs must attend
4. We do not need to watch the Land Trust video nor do a SNAP plan.
5. Report of this year at KSHS

*Another new classroom in place this year – 18 classes now with over 200 students – still in need of one certified teacher so Jenni is serving as a team leader in room 106 right now. We have kindergarten, medically fragile, orthopedically impaired, functional track and academic track classes.

*We have 1 new certified staff: Caley Barber – University of Utah grad and former para in a district cluster classroom

*Classroom staffing – many new assistants were hired this summer. There are 3, 4 or 5 assistants in classrooms; may include a 25-hour assistant.

*Subs – we hired a few full-time now and are in need of additional subs

*Community Based Training – including community jobs.

*weekly - STAR Awards and JCU Outstanding Employee recognition

*Monthly Parent Newsletter

*SIBS continues

6. Our Adaptive PE Program – Val
7. Community Involvement
 - a. Riverton High School Pep Rally – October 5
 - b. Riverton High School Peer Leadership Team (PLT)
 - c. Ongoing Eagle Scout Projects
 - d. Juan Diego Senior Service Project – next January
8. Updated SCC guidelines from USBE – they do not impact our plan but they state that only $2 may be spent per student on incentives and that money spent on assistants must be used for staff who spend at least 75% of their time in direct instruction with children.
9. Land Trust Monies for this year - $13,469 – slated for curriculum development, Professional Development and subs for staff attending conferences
10. Professional Development report
 - a. All staff completed Mandt, LRBI, time-out and many staff have their CPR and first aid, at least one staff in each classroom has their food handler's permit.
 - b. Summer Curriculum Projects
 - c. Ease into the EE's – USOE Grant for $8,000 – certified team leaders
11. Fundraiser idea – car show with Memorial video, posters and t-shirts.
12. Teacher Appreciation Luncheon report – this year's t-shirts – Spaghetti Factory was a big hit with staff.
13. Safety Audit – we did not receive 100% this year due to staff badges that were inactive because of under-use – bummer! But, we did receive an average of 92.76%
